An Open Themed, Curated Exhibit Representing Women Artists

~Hot Thoughts, Cold Emotions, Hot Theories and Cold Notions. Art emulating time, place, momentary observation or feeling~

A sassy, bold exhibit to kick off the summer, and shake off the pandemic blues. These works of art emulate time, place, a momentary observation, or a feeling we have universally experienced.

“The Story of my life, I always get the fuzzy end of the lollipop,” says Sugar Kane Kowalczyk played by Marilyn Monroe in “Some Like it Hot”. The academy award winning film from 1959 with Jack Lemon and Tony Curtis.
